

To Whom it May Concern:

I support the Telephone Consumer Protection Act. Those who sign up for the "Do Not Call List" are most likely not interested in purchasing or signing up for an items on the phone. Telemarketing has always be a nuisance and people have the right to block it if they so choose. It's their telephone line, their telephone bill, and should not be abused.